A NEW CLINIC OFFERING SPECIALIZED INDUSTRIAL REHABILITATION, SIMULATION, AND MEDICAL TREATMENT

Waverly Industrial Rehab (WIR) is a partnership between Taylor Physical Therapy and Summit Industrial Medicine, dedicated to serving the workforce of Northeast Iowa. By uniting medical and rehabilitative providers in one facility, our goal is to enhance continuity of care and streamline communication. WIR houses a uniquely designed rehabilitation gym with state of the art job simulating equipment to replicate the physical demands of the workplace. With the ability to offer same day appointments, Waverly Industrial Rehab is equipped to minimize workforce absence and maximize recovery.

How is WIR different than any other therapy clinic?

Simply put, the rehabilitation facility at Waverly Industrial Rehab is designed with the workforce in mind.

- Stations have been created to replicate job requirements during physical and occupational therapy.
- By offering work hardening, WIR is a resource for employees who have finished formal therapy but need additional conditioning to be able to withstand the physical demands of a full days work.
- Offering post-offer performance physicals with simulation of specific job tasks.
- Providers at WIR have specialized training to meet the unique needs of the workman's compensation population

Occupational Medicine

Dr. Jon Fields is a graduate of the University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine and is Board Certified in Occupational and Environmental Medicine. He spent eight years as a staff physician in Occupational Medicine, servicing patients throughout the Cedar Valley and northern Iowa. He is also a certified Medical Review Officer (MRO), Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration (FMCSA) Medical Examiner and Senior Federal Aviation Medical Examiner. His specific clinical interests include sports medicine and worksite injury prevention.
